INVOCATION

Today we lift our hearts to you in one voice as we pray,
Into this holy temple, we have come, gracious God. This is not our church but yours. We cannot claim our world; it is a trust from your hand.
Our lives, our health, and our length of days call forth our stewardship.
We are managers, not owners, so we come to you now to give account and seek your further commands. Help us, O God of our salvation; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

RESPONSIVE READING

Psalm 113

Brett Baddorf

Praise the Lord! Praise, O servants of the Lord; praise the name of the Lord.
Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time on and forevermore.
From the rising of the sun to its setting, the name of the Lord is to be praised.
The Lord is high above all nations and his glory above the heavens.
Who is like the Lord our God, who is seated on high,
who looks far down on the heavens and the earth?
He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap, to make them sit with the princes of his people.
He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyous mother of children.
Praise the Lord!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leah Brown

Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

SURRENDER

We welcome all guests worshipping with us today. Learning experiences for preschool children and infants are offered during the worship hour in the children's building. Large print bulletins and hymns and enhanced hearing aids are available for use in this service. An usher can assist you with these and any other needs you may have.

The season of Ordinary Time refers to the Sundays of the year that fall outside the periods of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. The word Ordinary refers to the ordinal numbers of each Sunday as we count the weeks between the Church's seasons. Ordinary time can be understood in terms of the living out of the Christian faith and the meaning of Christ's resurrection in our day-to-day life. The color green represents the life and growth of the church and its ministry.

This week's cover art is 'Tanaw' (translated into English as 'within sight' or 'within view' from Tagalog) by Emmanuel Garibay. Garibay (born 1962) is a Filipino artist whose work tells stories of hope and powerlessness, restlessness for freedom from economic and political oppression. He sees in images the capacity to provide an antidote to blindness and rally the imagination to new acts of justice. www.imagejournal.org/article/recognizing-the-stranger/

Leaders in worship include Mandi Boyd, Lay Reader, and Ben Boyd, Deacon of the Week.

This morning's flowers are given in loving memory of Nettie Barnes Engels by her family.
